

Press Release

Spirited Art

October 13, 2011

Get ready Richmond! Spirited Art – an optimistic, creative night out – is coming to West Broad Village Shopping Center this November. This new business combines good friends, good wine and paint (yes, paint!) to create some fabulous works of art.

At Spirited Art, local artists guide all ages and skill levels, step-by-step, through the creation of their own masterpieces. The studio hosts an eclectic selection of class themes, ranging from college mascots to crosses to wine bottles to Monet's water lilies. Spirited Art provides all of the painting supplies. Come alone or with friends, all you need to bring is your sense of humor and your creative spirit.

Don't worry if you can't even draw a stick person. Local owners and sisters, Lauren McCormick and Dami Synder, promise that if you know your letters, shapes and colors, you are prepared to learn how to paint! The sisters fell in love with Spirited Art while visiting a friend in Huntsville, Alabama (Spirited Art's first location). They have been working to introduce Spirited Art to Richmond ever since!

Need some creative juices? A wide selection of wine, beer (as well as non-alcoholic beverages!) and hors d'oeuvres are available for purchase from their partner, The Wine Loft.

Spirited Art strongly believes in giving back to the community. They are proud to hold a "Painting for a Cause" once a month. During that night, Spirited Art partners with a local non-profit and donates over 70% of the proceeds (up to $1,500 in one night!) back to the non-profit organization.

Spirited Art hosts private parties, kid's birthday parties, corporate team-building and school group events too! You can choose an existing painting or an artist will create a unique painting, just for your event.

Visit their website at www.myspiritedart.com to sign up for a class. Adult classes are $35 and kid's classes are $25.

Spirited Art Richmond is conveniently located at 4029 Whittall Way. For more information, please contact Lauren McCormick at spiritedartrichmond@gmail.com.
